Video Night and Christmas Carols

December 17th, 2014 Thursday 7:30pm

First shown at the 2004 Self-Realization Fellowship Convocation, this inspiring program provides a firsthand glimpse of Paramahansa Yogananda's newly published commentary on the Gospels — through reminiscences of two of his foremost disciples, Sri Daya Mata and Sri Mrinalini Mata. Interspersed throughout are archival photos of the Guru accompanied by rare recordings of his voice. A deeply moving documentary that will instill in viewers' hearts and minds a lasting desire to experience for themselves the true Second Coming — the awakening of the Christ Consciousness within their souls.

Joy to the World!

After the video, which runs only 30 minutes, Kira Harrison will pull out the harmonium to lead us all in a half hour of Christmas caroling. Plan to stay, and lend your joyful voice to the evening.

Master loved the Christmas season--its spirit harmonizes so perfectly with his message of love and hope and goodwill.

Let's spend a few minutes together in praise of Spirit.
